I have several projects that are in the process of being photographed, produced and/or scheduled including:

- A book on the artist Roni Horn's water project, that will feature 60-80 installation views of the Art Institute of Chicago, publication scheduled for 2006 by the AIC.
- A book on the Cook-Forster collection (200+ items) which was photographed in July 2005 on location in Goettingen, Germany
- The Richard Fabian Collection of Chinese Art (400+ items) to be photographed on location in San Francisco in late 2005.
- Buddhist Treasures from the National Museum of Bhutan, to be photographed on location in The Kingdom of Bhutan in spring 2006.

In addition to the major publications above I have photographed dozens of smaller catalogues for galleries and Museums.
